Pintu's Magical Math Adventure

One sunny afternoon, Pintu and his friends Tara, Raju, and little Mira, were playing in the park. Soon, they got bore and Pintu asked them to get to magical math adventure. Pintu explained the magic trick. "Here's how it works! I'm going to ask each of you to think of a number between 1 and 10. Don't tell anyone! Just keep it a secret."

Multiply your secret number by 2,

Now add 8 to your answer.

Finally divide the whole number by 2

Subtract your original secret number!

Is your answer 4 too!

thought of 3:

$$3 \times 2 = 6$$

$$6 + 8 = 14$$

$$14 \div 2 = 7$$

$$7 - 3 = 4$$

thought of 5:

$$5 \times 2 = 10$$

$$10 + 8 = 18$$

$$18 \div 2 = 9$$

$$9 - 5 = 4$$

thought of 1:

$$1 \times 2 = 2$$

$$2 + 8 = 10$$

$$10 \div 2 = 5$$

$$5 - 1 = 4$$

thought of 4:

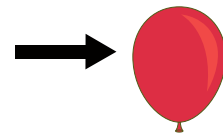

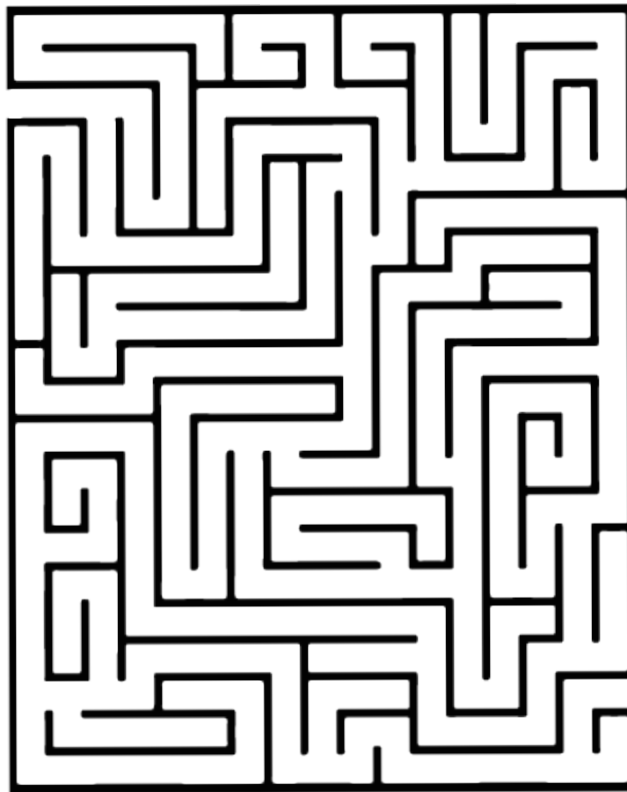

$$4 \times 2 = 8$$

$$8 + 8 = 16$$

$$16 \div 2 = 8$$

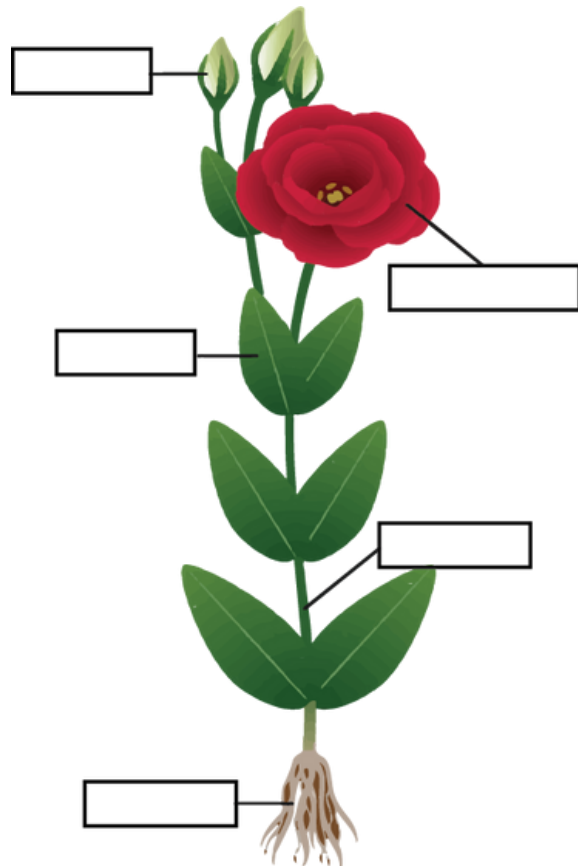

$$8 - 4 = 4$$

Happy, Happy New Year!

Boom, bang, pop—fireworks high,
Twinkling colors in the sky!
Clap your hands, stomp your feet,
The New Year's here—it's really neat!
Tick, tock, tick—it's almost time,
Let's all cheer, 'The year is mine!'
Hugs and giggles, loud hooray,
A brand-new year is on its way!
Jump around, let's all cheer,
Happy, happy, Happy New Year!

Julius Caesar, the emperor of Rome, was the first to declare January 1 a national holiday.

The first recorded New Year's celebrations took place in ancient Babylon about 4,000 years ago.

It is estimated that about 1 million people head to Times Square in New York City to celebrate New Years Eve.

DID

YOU KNOW?

The New Year in the Gregorian calendar is on January 1.

Julius Caesar named the first month of the year after Janus, the Roman god of doors and gates. Janus had two faces, one looking forward and one looking back. Caesar felt that a month named after this god would be fitting.

MY NEW YEAR RESOLUTION

ALL ABOUT NEW YEAR

On New Year's Day, everyone puts on new clothes and congratulates one another. On the occasion of the New Year, many different types of programmes are held in schools. The event of the New Year retains various fireworks, dance competitions, singing competitions, and so on. At New Year's, the market is ablaze with colour, with colourful lights, and other decorative items adorning every surface. On the occasion of the New Year, some countries have a state holiday, so people go on picnics. The New Year brings with it new hopes; we should always be happy in any situation, good or bad.

A Silly Sandwich

Talk

One fine day, Max and Mia went to park. As soon as clock struck 12 at noon. They thought to have lunch together in park. Lets read what did they had in lunch together?

Mia: Hey, Max! What are you eating?

Max: A peanut butter and jelly sandwich. It's my favorite!

Mia: Peanut butter and jelly? That's messy.

Max: Nope, I'm a sandwich-eating pro. Watch this! [takes a big bite]

Mia: Uh-oh... you have jelly on your nose.

Max: I do? Cool! Now I smell like grapes!

Mia: And peanut butter on your cheek!

Max: Awesome. I'm like a snack & a face mask.

Mia: You're the funniest sandwich eater ever!

Max: Thanks! Wanna try? I can make you a jelly nose too!

Mia: No way! I like my sandwiches on my plate, not my face!

Max: Suit yourself. More peanut butter and jelly for me! [takes another big bite]

Mia: [laughs] And now it's on your shirt!

Crow & the Pitcher

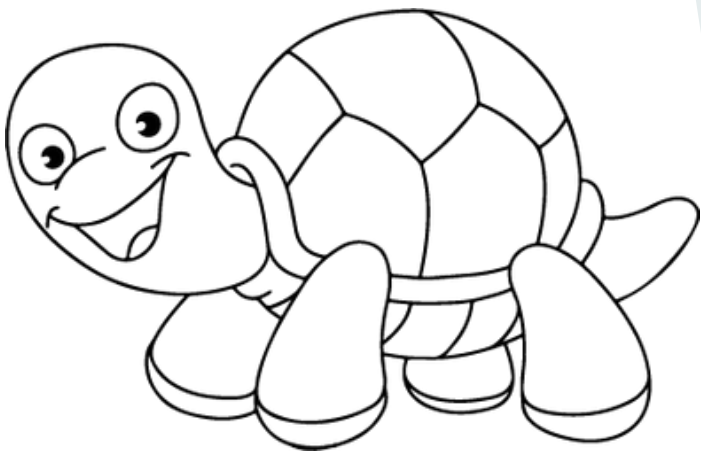

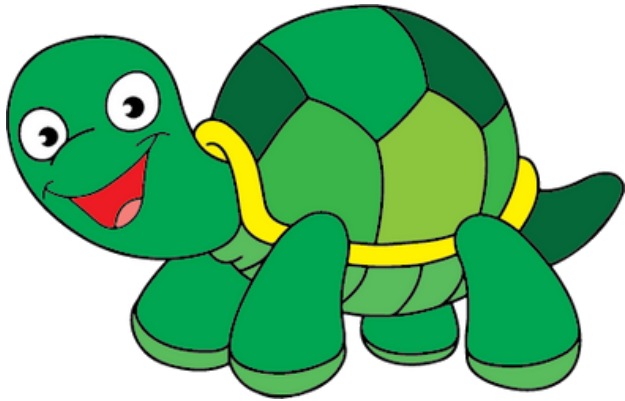

Once a thirsty crow, came across a pitcher placed outside a house. But it was only half filled with water.

After many unsuccessful attempts to drink water from the pitcher, the crow up with a bright idea and collected a few small pebbles and dropped them one by one in the pitcher. As a result, the water rose to the mouth of the pitcher.

The crow then quenched his thirst and saved his life.

Bella, Benji, and The Great Balloon Chase

One bright morning,  the bunny and her little brother, , were playing in the meadow.  had found a shiny red  tied to a  and the two bunnies took turns bouncing it into the air. “Higher, ”  giggled, hopping around excitedly.  gave the  a big tap, and it floated up, up, up—so high it almost touched the clouds.

But then, whoosh! A gust of wind blew the  away! It bounced across the meadow and into the nearby .

“Oh no!”  cried, his floppy ears drooping.

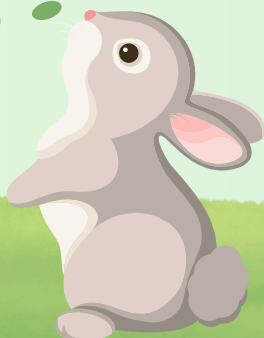

“Don’t worry, ,”  said, twitching her nose. “Let’s chase it!”

The two bunnies dashed after the , weaving through tall grass and hopping over rocks.

The  bobbed and floated, sometimes stopping just long enough for them to get close—then bouncing away again.

It floated into the , where it got caught on a low branch. “We’re too small to reach it!” they said.

 looked around and spotted a long  on the ground. “I have an idea!” she said. She grabbed the  with her paws and stretched it up toward the branch.

With a little wiggle and a poke, the 🍒 came loose. But instead of floating down, it zoomed away again! This time, it headed straight for the 🌿.

The bunnies ran after it as fast as their paws could go. The 🍒 landed with a gentle plop on a 🌸 pad 🐰 and 🐰 stood at the edge of the water, puzzled.

Just then, their friend 🐢 the turtle popped his head out of the water. "Need help?" he asked.

"Yes, please!" 🐰 squeaked.

🐢 swam over to the lily pad, nudged the 🍒 with his shell, and sent it floating back to shore. 🐰 caught it just in time before it drifted away again.

"Thank you, 🐢!" They said together.

🐢 grinned. "Anytime!"

The two bunnies carried the 🍒 back to the meadow, laughing all the way. They tied it to a sturdy 🪵 and played until the sun began to set.

"That was the best 🍒 adventure ever!" Benji said, flopping onto the grass with a happy sigh.

Bella smiled. "And we'll always remember it every time we see a 🍒!"

Birbal & the Well LETS READ

1.

A poor farmer once bought a well from a rich man so that he could irrigate his land using the water from the well. The farmer paid the price quoted by the rich man.

2.

The next day, when the farmer went to draw water from the well, the rich man stopped him and disallowed him from drawing water.

3.

He said that the farmer had bought only the well and not the water from him. So, he cannot draw any water from the well.

4.

Not knowing what to do, the farmer went to the king's court and told Akbar about his predicament. Akbar handed over the case to Birbal.

5.

Akbar asks Birbal to help the poor farmer solve his problem.

6. Birbal visited the rich man who was causing problems to the farmer. The rich man reiterated what he told the farmer.

7. Birbal said, "Since you have sold the well and not the water to the farmer."

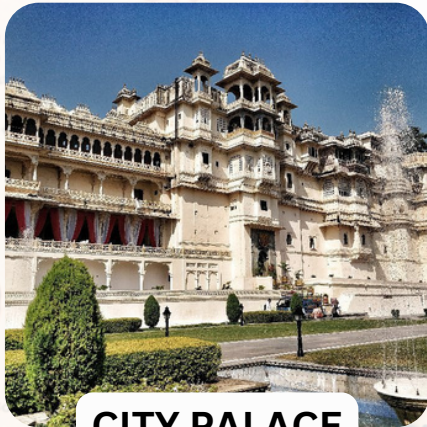

8. Birbal also said "you will have to move all the water or pay rent to the farmer to keep the water in the well."

9. The rich man realised his ploy was not going to work and let the farmer use the well from the water.

Moral: Do not try to deceive people as you will end up paying the price.

SUPER SNACK

APPLES

Hey there, super snackers! Did you know apples are not just yummy but also super good for you? These crunchy treats are like little superheroes in your lunchbox. Let's find out why!

Apples are packed with Vitamin C, which keeps you strong and helps fight colds. It helps you in saying goodbye to sniffles and cough!

They give you a quick power-up. That means no sleepy slumps here!

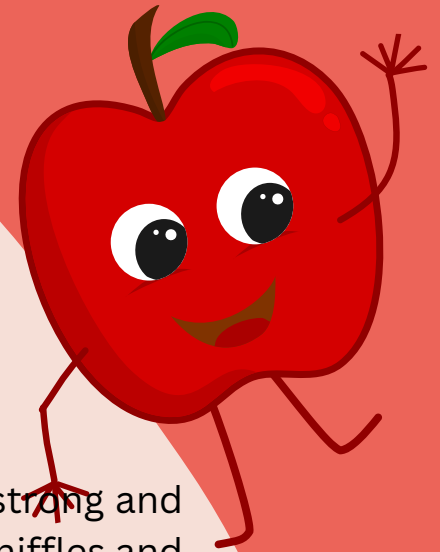

Apples are full of fiber, which keeps your tummy happy and working just right.

Apples come in all kinds of flavors—from sweet to tangy—and colors like red, green, and yellow. Kids can enjoy them sliced, in a smoothie, or even as apple sauce.

Let's Make Healthy Apple Juice!

Ingredients: 2 fresh apples ; ½ cup water; 1 teaspoon lemon juice

Method: Wash the apples thoroughly and chop them into small pieces. Add the apple pieces and water to a blender. Blend until smooth. Strain the mixture through a fine sieve or cheesecloth into a bowl. Press the pulp to get all the juice out. Stir in the lemon juice to keep the color bright and the taste fresh. Pour into a glass, pop in a straw, and enjoy your fresh, healthy apple juice!

GUESS WHAT?

Apples help clean your teeth when you chew! It's like brushing your teeth while snacking. (But don't skip brushing for real, okay?)
